New Orleans Pop: Past and Prospect
2015 SFA Summer Symposium
Thursday, June 25–Saturday, June 27

Bibliography

A selective roster of New Orleans reading suggestions (along with foodways books and articles written by symposium presenters, regardless of subject.) Access to academic articles may require a subscription to JSTOR or Project Muse.

BOOKS & ARTICLES

Johnson, Pableaux. *Eating New Orleans: From French Quarter Creole Dining to the Passidomo, Catarina. “Right to (Feed) the City: Race, Food Sovereignty, and Food Justice Activism in Post-Hurricane Katrina New Orleans.” Ph.D. dissertation, University of Georgia, 2013.

COOKBOOKS

SFA ORAL HISTORY

French Quarter Cocktails. Oral history interviews with bartenders and bar owners on and around Bourbon Street. Summer 2015.

Middendorf’s and Manchac. Oral history interviews with employees of the iconic seafood restaurant. Spring 2015.

Southern Gumbo Trail. Interviews with gumbo purveyors and experts. Spring 2011.

FILMS & TELEVISION

ONLINE

Radio show host Poppy Tooker’s Louisiana Eats! Available at WWNO.

Photographer Claire Bangser posts art installations of her daily stories of NOLA Beings.

Kasimu Harris’s photography may be viewed on his website.

Pableaux Johnson is a photographer and food and travel writer. His writing and photography are available on his website.